Any one that is a descendant of Cub Creek, VA: Caldwell fam or even those that can't find their lines, it might be good idea to check out the Caldwell Workbook by Mrs John Q Anderson, was pub in 1966, on FHC film. She covers the VA family and matches up many of the SC, NC descendants to this family. Also has some others, book is about 500 pages, and stuffed with facts. Have not checked out, not mine. Wilma

There are some more wills and if any one thinks they should have a will send me the name and CA date and will check. The films that I have from FHC has lots of stuff in them but most seem to be Cub Creek, VA family. Film # 1316360 is film with L. Andrea info on it and I found even that was a great deal of the VA Caldwells

Film # 0954250 Has some more of the Cub Creek VA family, but think that she has more others on it and for some it might be worth their time to check out that film.

For Barbara Johnson, there is a number of Oliver Caldwells in that last film. Also another side of the famous story of how our Caldwells was to be ------don't know the proper word, but since we are all cousins according to them you get what I mean.

Friends,
Wilma,
I have been running census's this week at the FHC in WLA and found that 1820 has NO Caldwells, but a big group are there by 1830, including My Robert, Galbreath, another Robert, a Joseph, William Jr. and an Elizabeth age 30-40 widow. there is a William and his wife who are between 70-80 years. In 1850 there is Robert, James and others which I didn't have time to finish. Anyone have Wallaces' connected to Caldwell?? there is a Wallace living in the home of Gilbreath Caldwell, here name is Jane age 87 in 1850, b in Ireland in 1763. Wallace is an old family and several of them, in York Co SC. Any one connected to the name Lowry, John and Mary both age 70 b 1780 in Ireland. Neighbors next door to Caldwells. also a Sarah Love age 60 b in Ireland 1790.>>>

Oral Hx by John Whalan, states Colwell (Caldwell) Maxwells mother in Co Donegal was a Wallace, his father was James Maxwell. He arrived York Co in 1848, Frances (Fannie) Caldwell had a dau the next year and she and Colwell were married in 1855 in Georgia, Whitfield/Walker Co.
Sure would like to piece this all together. Another thought is Maybe John Whalen got the names mixed up... Maxwell and Caldwell.. and maybe Robert Caldwell's mother was a Wallace. The Caldwells and Wallaces were from the two counties, Donegal and Tyrone..in close>> proximity and maybe they were all friends, relatives and neighbors before they started coming over here.
Loves, Caldwells, Wallaces and Maxwells, that is!

...is it William you are searching. Here is a list of the neighbors of york co for the two williams: Logan Crawford Quinn Lesley Caldwell Caldwell Mills Kind
___Hill McElwee Caloway McElwee and Garden. Elwee film from the FHC SLC?
It has Caldwell info and they were on Bullocks Creek Clarks Fork I think.
...it tells me how close they all were living and probably in blood line too! Some neighbors of the other Wm Caldwell, the 70-80 yr old are Clark, Nullinox, Sandlew? Caverny, Blalock? Love and Love.

"Wilma, this is from a book from LA city library, I am sorry, in my haste I did not write down the name and will have to recheck for source. "the name Caldwell is on honored in American Annals for patriotism and bravery in pioneer day and during the Revolution. They have also been staunch defenders of their church, infulential in politics and useful members of society. The earliest records of this family relates to three brothers, John, Alexander and Oliver, seamen on the Mediterranean in the 15th century, under tow men named Barbarossa, whose careers were ended by the Governor of Arno and their followers scattered. The three Caldwell brothers returned to Toulon France, where they were born, and settled nearby, at Mount Arran. Having incurred the displeasure of Frances I, king of France, they were forced to leave and fled to Scotland, where they purchased, near Solway Firth, the estate of a bishop named Douglas, with the consent>> of James I, upon conditions that 'the said brothers, John Alexander and Oliver, late of Mt. Arid, should have their estate known as Caldwell, and when the king should require, they should each send a son with twenty stout men to aid in the wars of the king'. A cup, (an heirloom) proves by its marking that the estate took its name from the watering place, "Cauld Well." The device shows a chieftain surrounded by a group of twenty men, one of whom is drawing water from a well. On a hill is a blaxing fire and underneith the words, "Mt Arid." On the reverse side is a vessel surrounded by high waves, indication their>> former sea-faring life. Joseph, John, Alexander, David and Andrew, of Caldwell went with Oliver Cromwell, (a grandson of Anne Caldwell) to Ireland of which he was Lord Governor. After his promotion to Protectorate of England, they remained in Ireland in his service until the restoration of Charles II, when David and Andrew fled to America. John Joseph and Daniel died in Ireland, but several of their children or their descendants emigrated to America and settled on the James River, VA and elsewhere. Of this family of Caldwells, James, the father of James, who emigrated to America in 1769, was a landed proprietor near Cork (the town of Cork) County Tyrone, Ireland, and had on his estates extensive linen bleacheries. His son James, born on the family estate in 1724, married in 1752>> Elizabeth Alexander, born near the town of Cork in 1737. They had 13 children. After the death of his father, he fled persecution to America, where they arrived 1769, bring with them 9 children: John, Anne, Mary, Sarah, Frances, Janet, Lovely, Elizabeth and Jane. A son Samuel was born at sea and four more children were born to them in America: James Susannah, Alexander Hillyard and Joseph. They settled in Baltimore, or Havre de Grace and in 1774 moved to West VA where he took up large bodies of land. He finally settled near Wheeling, taking up nearly all the land in that section . One large plantation on Wheeling Creek, he have to his> Mary, wife of General Moses Chapline, which is now the summer home of Mrs Milton. General Mores Chapline and wife Mary Caldwell, had a dau Mary, born in PA. and six sons Josiah, William, Alexander, James, Moses and Samuel, who Married Isabella Graham and had two children Moses and Mary.

_An extremely interesting note posted by Mary Taylor in'91_ 'The following letter, written by John RODGERS of KY to his kinsman, Elias B. CALDWELL of Washington, D.C. (Clerk of the U.S. Supreme Court), was published in the Jan. 1911 issue of the VIRGINIA MAGAZINE, Vol. 19. p 93. "Dear Sir:

"I acknowledge receipt of you letter of the 18th of March and I thank you for the information therein contained.... The accounts you give me of many of my dear people are truly pleasing to me as I am now eldest of all our family and have from ny youth up been very curious in collecting all information I could obtain from my oldest relations with regard to our ancestors. I will give you a short sketch of what I know on the subject. It may afford you some amusement in you leisure hours.

"Our grandfather emigrated from Scotland soon after King William's conquest of that place. Our grandfather John CALDWELL was born in Ireland and was there married to Margaret PHILLIPS (our grandmother). He remained there till they had 5 children at which time he got 3 of his brothers-in-law, who had married his sisters, to come to America with him (to wit) MOOR, RITCHEY, & DUDGEON, all of whom I remember well, and one brother-in-law who had married his wife's sister whose name was DOUGHERTY, grandfather of my wife and of Thomas DOUGHERTY formerly clerk of the lower House of Congress and, of course, known to you. These set sail together and landed in Delaware the very day King George II was proclaimed there. From thense they got up the country to a place in Pennsylvania then call Chestnut Level. Our grandfather, naturally of an enterprizing spirit explored the country westwardly till he and his followers fixed on a fine level watered spot not 30 miles outside any inhabitants to which place he and his sons and brothers-in-law moved about the year 1742 or 3. They were soon joined by other friends, mostly from Ireland or Pennsylvania, until they formed a settlement which was known and always called CALDWELL settlement for 30 years after. Our grandfather was the first Justice of the Peace and his oldest son the oldest militia officer that was ever appointed under King George II.

"Within 25 miles of that place in that neighborhood I was born & in it was married and had 6 children before I moved to Kentucky in the year 1781. Our greandfather's children were WILLIAM, THOMAS, DAVID, MARGARET, JOHN, ROBERT and JAMES. My father and grandfather both died in October 1750, just 14 days apart. My mother then married a man by the name of James MITCHELL. She had 5 children by each husband. Two of her daughters died in Va. The rest all came to Kentucky and have been numerous families. Her son ROBERT died in Kentucky. WILLIAM, THOMAS AND DAVID CALDWELL are all buried in the same graveyard with their father. DAVID's widow and all that family moved to Kentucky. Uncle JOHN went to SOUTH CAROLINA and died there. Uncle WILLIAM's widow and all that family went to SOUTH CAROLINA, also. Our friend, John C. CALHOUN is a son of the second daughter of that family.

"I enjoy as good health as a man in his 79th year has any good reason to expect or look for, for which I ought to be very thankful to the great Giver of all blessings. My kindred in this section of the country are all well as far as I know. ... Remember me to you wife and children and to your brother JOSIAH and family. ...

"Your affectionate cousin, John RODGERS"' Thanks Mary, Jim

Friends, a file recieved on *P in 1991.
'James, your friend has the names of the children of JOHN CALDWELL and Margaret PHILLIPS correct, but according to the information I have, he has the wrong WILLIAM as their son.

Their grandson, JOHN RODGERS, (son of Margaret CALDWELL RODGERS) wrote a letter to another of their grandsons, ELIAS B. CALDWELL, (son of ROBERT), to tell him about the faimily. I have posted that letter here on the BB under the subject CALDWELL(note#10) . According to John Rodgers, John CALDWELL and 3 of his sons, WILLIAM, THOMAS, and DAVID died in Virginia and were all buried in the same graveyard.

David's widow and all that family moved to KY, as did John RODGERS and his siblings, (except for two who had already died in VA), including the MITCHELL siblings. John RODGERS state that "Uncle JOHN went to SC and died there. Uncle WILLIAM'S widow and alla that family also went to SC. John C. CALHOUN is the son of the 2nd daughter of that family. Notice that the WILLIAM that your friend has listed lived in SC and John RODGERS states that WILLIAM died in VA, before his family moved to SC.

I will list in a separate note the children of William CALDWELL & Rebecca PARQUE which SC historians state is the son of John CALDWELL and Margaret PHILLIPS.

Please note that this William had a son William who names one of his sons PATRICK CALHOUN, after his sister's husband.'

" In his Annals of Newberry County? South Carolina (1852) Judge O'Neall Pays to Mrs. Rebecca Caldwell and her family and their service to the count. and early state government by devoting a chapter to each member who remained permanent residents in Newberry County.

"James Caldwell known as "the fighting parson" youngest son of Captain John Caldwell and Margaret Phillips, emigrants to America, was born in Virginia in April, 1734; graduated from Princeton in 1759; was licensed to preach by the New Jersey Presbytery July 29, 1760; ordained September, 1760; and installed as pastor ofthe First Presbyterian Church at Elizabethton, N.J. IN 1763 he was married to Hannah Ogden , daughter of John Ogden. During the Revolution he and his wife were shot down by British sentinels , he at Elizabeth Point, New Jersey, Nov.24,1781. The steey is told that his wife was sitting on her porch with her baby in her armswhen she was brutally killed. After this he became obsessed with zeal to carry retributionfor this dastardly act. In the battle of Springfield, New Jersey he shouted to his troops "Give Watt ,boys! " as they used Watt hymn books for packing to load their guns, and the incidenthas been made famous in picture, song and story. A monument stands on this spot to commemorate his bravery and distinguished leadership, which I visited in 1937.

"Bret Harte wrote an immortal poem on Caldwell of Springfield which is reproduced in Caldwells in America by Augustine Caldwell.
